Dr. Good retires, receives flag

Dr. Earl Good, retiring director of Air Force Research Laboratory's Directed Energy Directorate, receives the Senior Executive Service Flag from Gen. Lester Lyles, Air Force Materiel Command commander, at the doctor's retirement ceremony April 3. When Dr. Good was promoted to the Senior Executive Service (brigadier general equivalent) in 1988, he was given the flag to display in his office. Gen. Lyles is giving Dr. Good the flag for his outstanding service to the Senior Executive Service.

Yellow ribbons

Aaron Threhane of the Kirtland AFB Fire Department attaches a big yellow ribbon on one of the fire trucks to show support of America's military people serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom. The base flower shop used the ribbon provided by the fire department to fashion this ribbon and others that are attached to trees along one section of Hardin Field. The department plans to attach bows to all the trees as the ribbons become available.
